3. PAIA and POPIA

- 3.1. The Promotion of Access to Information Act 2 of 2000 ("PAIA") grants a requester access to records of a private body, if the record is required for the exercise or protection of any rights. If a public body lodges a request, the public body must be acting in the public interest.
- 3.2. The Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013 ("POPIA") gives effect to the constitutional right to privacy. One of the data processing principles under POPIA is that of data subject participation, which allows for data subjects to access and correct their personal information held by a responsible party. This manual provides for data subject to request this information from the Company.

4. Requests for Information

- 4.1. Requests in terms of PAIA must be made in accordance with the prescribed procedures, at the prescribed rates provided. The forms and tariff are dealt with in Regulations 6 and 7 promulgated in terms of PAIA.
- 4.2. The information will only be made available subject to the provisions of PAIA and access to records may also be refused due to attorney-client privilege.
- 4.3. Proof of payment of the said prescribed fee must accompany the completed application form.

5. The Guide

5.1. Requesters are referred to the Guide in terms of Section 10 which has been compiled by the South African Human Rights Commission (“SAHRC”), which will contain information for the purposes of exercising Constitutional Rights. The Guide is available from the SAHRC in all of the official languages.

8. Schedule of Records of the Company

The records held by the Company, both those that can be accessed without an application in terms of PAIA and otherwise, are listed in Schedule 1.

9. Schedule of Personal Information Processed by the Company

9.1. Schedule of Personal Information. The personal information processed by the Company in terms of POPIA is set out in Schedule 2.

9.2. Planned and actual transborder flows of personal information. The Company may use hosting or cloud services to store and process personal information that are not located in the RSA. If it does so, it will ensure that the level of protection given to the personal information is at least as good as that provided for under RSA Law, either by means of a binding contract with the service provider, or by using a service provider located in a country with privacy laws of similar or stronger effect.

9.3. Information Security Measures.

The Company employs appropriate, reasonable technical and organisational measures to secure the integrity and confidentiality of personal information in its possession or under its control, which include the following:

- 9.3.1. Ensuring physical security measures are in place at all times, including, but not limited to, having an alarm system in place; locking of all doors to the office;
- 9.3.2. Keeping all physical client files (including FICA documentation) in cabinets located in access-controlled offices;
- 9.3.3. Archiving client files securely with a third party storage services provider;
- 9.3.4. Backing up and storing all client information and files to the password protected cloud storage provided by Microsoft and protected by security processes set up by Microsoft;
- 9.3.5. Shredding of all client information and files once closed and digital backups made;
- 9.3.6. Ensuring each desktop computer used by staff is password protected;
- 9.3.7. Ensuring each laptop computer used by staff is password protected and encrypted;
- 9.3.8. Ensuring firewall and anti-virus software is installed on all computers and laptops and running at all times;

- 9.3.9. Identifying reasonably foreseeable internal and external risks to personal and other information in its possession or under its control;
- 9.3.10. Establishing and maintaining appropriate safeguards against the risks identified;
- 9.3.11. Regularly verifying that the safeguards are effectively implemented;
- 9.3.12. Ensuring that the safeguards are continually updated in response to new risks or deficiencies in previously implemented safeguards;
- 9.3.13. Ensuring compliance by all staff of its strict security policy contained in its Electronic Communications Policy, which includes that:
- 9.3.13.1. All information relating to the Company's clients and business operations, whether paper-based or electronic, is confidential and must be treated with utmost care;
- 9.3.13.2. Staff are strictly prohibited from performing any act which may damage or threaten the functioning, security and/or integrity of the Company's electronic communications system;
- 9.3.13.3. Staff must:
- Maintain exclusive control over and use of any password or access code used to gain access to the electronic communications system, and protect it from inadvertent disclosure to others;
  - Take care not to open any unsolicited messages or messages from senders unknown, especially when such messages include attachments;
  - Ensure that the information or data under their control is properly safeguarded according to its level of sensitivity;
  - Make back-ups of all sensitive, critical and valuable data files as often as is deemed reasonable by the system controller;
  - Keep all confidential information secure and use it only for the purposes intended and not disclose it to any unauthorised third party;
  - When working remotely, password protect any work which relates to the Company's business in order to prevent unauthorised access thereof.
  - Install (or allow the IT service provider to install) and run backup software on devices if provided to them by the Company for business use;
  - Install and use virus detection software on any device connected to the Company's electronic communications system; and

- Not use knowledge of passwords, codes or loopholes in the Company's electronic communications system to damage resources, obtain extra resources, take resources from other users, gain unauthorised access to other parts of the system or otherwise make use of the system in a manner for which proper authorisation has not been given;

9.3.13.4. Copies of confidential information should be printed out only as necessary, retrieved from the printer immediately, and stored or destroyed in an appropriate manner;

9.3.13.5. If any sensitive or confidential information is lost or disclosed to unauthorised parties, or suspected to be lost or disclosed to unauthorised parties, the system controller must be notified immediately; and

9.3.13.6. Any incident that appears or is likely to compromise the security of the Company's electronic communications system must be reported to the system controller or the IT service provider. This will include missing data, virus infestations, and unexplained transactions.

10. Other Prescribed Information

10.1. At the time of the compilation of this manual, no further information has been prescribed.

11. Availability of Manual
